1. CIRCULAR FOR FUNDED STUDENTS

The University continues to receive funding lists consisting of FTENS and continuing students from NSFAS. The NSFAS application process closed on the 31st January 2023, the university is expecting additional funding lists from NSFAS. The Financial Aid Office will unblock the students when they receive and notify students.

2. NSFAS AND BURSARY BENEFICIARIES MUST CAPTURE THEIR BANKING DETAILS ON ITS iEnabler

NSFAS and sponsored students are urged to capture their banking details on ITS iEnabler to enable the Financial Aid Office to disburse their allowances after the registration processes are concluded. Students must ensure they capture correct personal banking details, upload bank confirmation letter confirming the student's banking details and certified ID copy on the ITS. The Financial Aid Office will not disburse any allowances to the student's next of kin. Students are advised not to use Tyme bank due to inadequate security measures when opening the bank account.

3. 2023 NSFAS APPEALS

NSFAS opened the appeal process for new and continuing students from the 20th January 2023 and closes on the 20th February 2023. All students are required to appeal directly at NSFAS using NSFAS portal. Students are encouraged to appeal on time, NSFAS indicated that, they will not process late appeals.

The Finance team wishes you the best in your studies.

Kind Regards,

Office of the Chief Financial Officer
